ONE GROUND LEFT FOR GOULD WOMAN

Court Rules Out All But Deser-
tion and Husband
Seeks to Show Drinking as Excuse

NEW YORK, June 15.—Mrs. Howard Gould who is suing Howard Gould, the New York millionaire for separation and alimony, broke down and wept in court this afternoon, when Alfred Richards, a steward in the employ of the Pullman company, but formerly at the estate of the Goulds on Long Island, testified that he had frequently seen her intoxicated and that she has used profane and improper language to persons employed at the Gould place. It was the first time that the former actress has lost her composure since the trial began.

Richards worked at Castle Gould in June and July, 1905. He swore that he saw the wife of his employer, "very much intoxicated" in July. She remained in her room for a period of two weeks, he swore, and he sent much liquor to her by her maid. In the morning, witness swore, she ordered cocktails, about noon whiskey and in the evening brandy. He swore she consumed seven bottles of brandy.

Gould, today put in a defense to his wife's allegations of desertion. All other contentions of Mrs. Gould, notably cruelty and non-support, were swept away after her case was rested late yesterday, by an adverse ruling of the court. This ruling followed a motion by Gould's attorney to dismiss, which was denied.

Drunkenness Justification

Gould had an army of witnesses on hand through whom he expected to prove that he was justified in leaving Mrs. Gould on the ground that she drank to excess.

On behalf of Gould it is claimed that he had been willing to return to his wife if she agreed to drink no more; to refrain from interference in the management of Castle Gould; not to humiliate him in the presence of his friends and allow him to audit her bills.

The court today ruled that "habitual drunkenness" would be justification for divorce, but added: "Isolated cases, however, would not be sufficient."

Testimony of Malloy and others was then introduced in an effort to show Mrs. Gould was an habitual drunkard.

ELLIOTT DECIDES FORFEIT TO STAND

The game which was forfeited by Wausau to Superior, yesterday by Umpire Dolan, because Manager Dunbar of the Wausau team refused to leave the field after a disputed decision by the umpire was protested, but President Elliott of the league says that the case is so clear that the game will have to remain as decided by the umpire. With three men on bases in the ninth inning and two out, the Wausau batter was hit by a pitched ball, the umpire declaring the man out because, in his opinion, the batter stepped into the ball purposely in order to force the tieing run of the game across the home plate. The Wausau players ran out to the field and crowded around Dolan, who stood by his decision and gave Manager Dunbar the customary two minutes to leave the field. As he was still on the diamond at the expiration of the required time, the game was forfeited.

MRS. GROVER CLEVELAND APPEARS AGAINST REPORTER

SAYS BRANDENBURG
FORGED MANUSCRIPT

Mrs. Grover Cleveland

NEW YORK, June 15.—Garbed in the deepest mourning, her attractive features completely hidden by a black crepe veil, Mrs. Grover Cleveland, widow of the former president, arrived at the criminal courts at 10:30 this morning to testify for the prosecution in the trial of Broughton Brandenburg, the magazine writer, who is accused of having sold a spurious article, on Wm. Jennings Bryan, and the democratic party, to the New York Times during the last campaign and which Brandenburg alleged was written by Cleveland. The widow of the former president was primarily responsible for the article being characterized a "fake."

After her testimony is completed she will go to her summer home in New England. While the preliminaries were being disposed of, she was permitted to remain in the private office of district attorney Jerome.

Brandenburg was brought in from the Tombs accompanied by his attorney Samuel Bell Thomas. He declared he expected to be acquitted and intimated that he had several trump cards to play when his defense was reached. The work of selecting a jury consumed considerable time.

The charge against Brandenburg is grand larceny in the second degree in having obtained $500 from the newspaper under "false pretenses." The jury was completed at 12:10 p. m. and assistant district attorney Nott made a brief opening address. A motion by the defense to dismiss the indictment on the ground that the allegations were insufficient was denied and the luncheon recess was ordered.

ONE OF ROOSEVELT PARTY IS KILLED

English Hunter Killed by Lion Which Inflicts Mortal Injuries—Party in Mourning

(By Warrington Dawson, Staff Correspondent of the United Press.)
NAIVASHA, B. E. A., June 15.—Col. Roosevelt has at last had the dangers of big game hunting in Africa brought home to him by mortal injuries sustained by H. Williams, who while hunting with F. C. Selous and W. N. MacMillan Saturday at Sotik, was attacked by a lion and fatally injured.

The runner who arrived today with news from the Roosevelt camp did not state whether Mr. Roosevelt was a witness of the tragedy or not but as Selous was to act as the guide for the expedition, it is inferred that the latter was also in the party.

Williams was attacked by the lion after it had been shot. His shoulder was broken and his flesh ripped into shreds in a dozen places. Williams was an Englishman living in the Lumbwa district and was a hunter of large experience.

The unfortunate occurrence, the first of its kind that has befallen the party, checked the enthusiasm of all the members perceptibly. One good that has already resulted from it, however, is the determination of the other hunters to take great care in the future, especially in the matter of having specially weapons at hand to guard against a misdirected shot.

The party had just got started on its hunt when today's runner arrived and he was not able to say whether the party had been successful.

LAMPHERE NEAR DEATH IN PRISON

LA PORTE, Ind., June 15.—That Ray Lamphere, convicted of burning the home of Mrs. Belle Guinness, La Porte's arch-murderess, is dying at the Michigan City penitentiary, was the information brought here today by Mrs. James Finley, his sister.

Lamphere recently wrote to her stating that he had had four hemorrhages and that death was imminent. She hurried to the prison but was denied admittance, a deputy warden stating that her brother was very low.

An effort will probably be made to secure Lamphere's parole.

CALLS OUT TROOPS TO QUELL A FEUD

Mississippi Quarrel Ended
In Two Deaths Last
Night and Shooting
Is Feared

MEADVILLE, Miss., June 15.—Fearing a renewal of street fighting in which two men were killed and five wounded late yesterday, eight companies of state troops have been called out to preserve order. Two companies are here and the rest is waiting in their armories for orders from Governor Noel.

In the meantime, a conference is under way at which it is expected martial law will be declared. If the civil authorities are allowed to keep their power it is probable that the troops will be used only to guard the officers at a special session of the court which will be held in the effort to punish the offenders and end the trouble.

The fighting yesterday was the result of an old feud which ended not long ago in the killing of Cornelius B. Pritchard by Dr. A. M. Newman.

Yesterday Newman who is leader of one faction of the feudists, was driving through the streets. As if by magic men with shotguns appeared and an open fight began. In the encounter which ensued 250 shots were fired, two men were killed and five wounded.

The dead:

Dr. A. M. Newman, Silas G. Reynolds.

The wounded:

Dr. Lenox Newman, Ernest W. Newman, son of A. M. Newman, H. L. Applewhite, W. L. Boyd, Virgil Marr.

ASSFOR SUFFERED MORE THAN ENOUGH

Declaring his belief that Elias Assfor, brother of Abraham Assfor, Syrian, arrested for interfering with an officer, Justice Justice Edward Cronon yesterday afternoon dismissed Assfor as not guilty.

Evidence showed Assfor, who is a very small and frail fellow, simply insisted in his impolitic way that Officer Britton, who is a big fellow, delay taking his brother Abraham to the police station, until Elias could get his cap. Thereupon, according to the evidence Britton pounced upon Elias and pounded him ruthlessly over the face and head with his club. Assfor, swathed in bandages as the result of his beating at the hands of the officer, presented a sorry spectacle in court this morning, and appeared scarcely able to walk. Other Syrians declare Elias Assfor is inoffensive and was not resisting Britton, so the prisoner was discharged as having suffered too much already.

The court expresses himself as strongly against needless brutality upon the part of policemen.

POLICE CAPTAIN PARKS STRICKEN

Venerable Officer Suffers a Serious Stroke of Paralysis This Morning

HIS RECOVERY IS IN DOUBT

Stroke Comes at Police Headquarters This Morning and Is Very Serious

While at Central station this morning, between 9 and 10 o'clock, Police Captain John Parks, the veteran of the local police force, was stricken with paralysis and is now resting at his home, 318 North Seventh street, where he was taken in a carriage immediately following.

Captain Parks is 65 years of age and is one of the biggest men in La Crosse. He has always enjoyed good health and seemed robust and active, this being the first serious illness he has encountered in a long time.

When the stroke came this morning Captain Parks suddenly became limp and lost consciousness. Drs. J. A. Rowles and Matt Dvorak were called and accompanied the captain home. It is stated that the stroke affected the base of the brain, but that in spite of this fact the condition of the officer is hopeful, say the physicians. However, a change may develop, as paralysis is very uncertain in its operations. In paralysis of this type, however, recovery is frequent.

Captain Parks is still unconscious this afternoon.

EARLING MAY GIVE HARRIMAN BATTLE

SEATTLE, Wash., June 15.—"This does not mean a rate war with the other lines. It is not the purpose of the Milwaukee road to disturb the railway situation but the occasion our rates and we can do this more promptly by acting independently."

This was the statement issued today by President A. J. Earling of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad regarding his roads' refusal to join the trans-continental freight association. Earling arrived here on the first Milwaukee train run through from Chicago to the Pacific coast over the new road's line.

The refusal of the Milwaukee to go into the association is regarded by many as the forerunner of a rate war between that line and the Hill-Harriman lines.

New York defeated Chicago for the first time this season, 7 to 5. After Walsh had been found for two runs in the third inning, Burns was substituted. The locals made five tallies off his left handed pitching in the one round he worked. Engles' batting was responsible for five of New York's seven runs.

Cleveland took the third straight game from Boston, 3 to 1. Errors were responsible for every run scored. Joss and Arellanes pitched strongly, the latter allowing but three hits. Taylor announced that Chester L. Nourse, the Brown university pitcher, had signed a contract with Boston and would report to Manager Lake on Thursday.

St. Louis defeated Philadelphia, 11 to 6 in a poorly played game. The home team got a lead of five runs in the first three innings, when Dineen settled down and held Philadelphia, while St. Louis hammered the ball hard and drove three of Mack's twirlers off the rubber.

Detroit bunched three hits on Grain in the first inning scoring one run. It proved enough to win as Willets was strong in pinches and the game had to be called in the first part of the sixth inning on account of rain.

Pittsburg won a slugging match from Brooklyn in the National league by a score of 7 to 5. Adams allowed six hits in the first inning and was replaced by Willis, who kept the hits fairly well scattered. In the fifth inning with the bases full, Pastorius made a wild throw to the plate, letting in two runs in. Miller batted in four of the local's runs. The victory made thirteen straight t hat Pittsburg has won. Score:

By taking Monday's game Philadelphia won the fourth straight game from the St. Louis team. The score was 7 to 1. The visitors hit More hard, while their own pitcher, Earl Moore, had the locals at his mercy. Score:

ROYAL ASCOT RACE MEETING OPENED

King and Queen and Aristocracy of England Attend Opening Day's Events

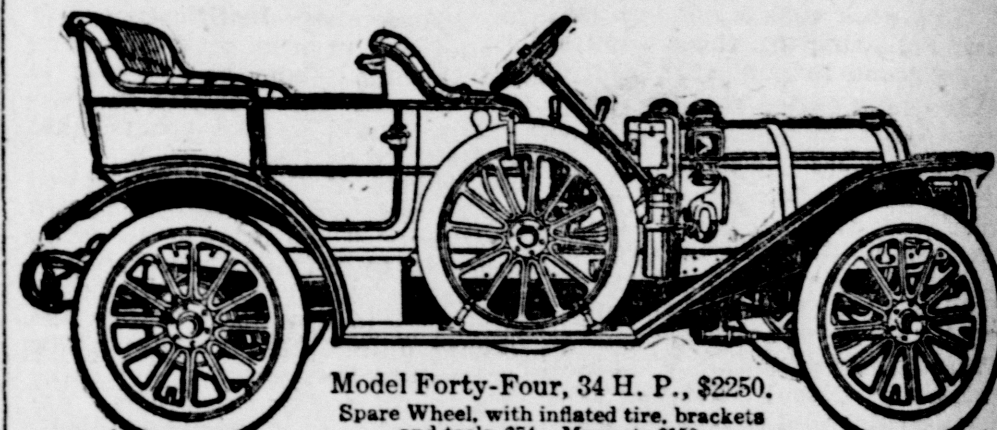

ASCOT RACE TRACK, June 15.—Royal Ascot, the greatest race meet of the year, began today. The enclosures were already packed when the king and queen arrived this afternoon having driven down in state from Windsor, according to custom that has come down through the long line of British monarchs who have patronized the turf. The magnificent six horse landaus, preceded by postillions in special Ascot liveries, rolled down the "straight" in a most gorgeous procession, passed the stand and turned into the royal enclosure, with the king and queen, the prince and princess of Wales, and the others of the royal party, while the band played "God Save the King" and the crowds cheered their loudest.

Try It on The Hills

Test this car at half speed on a hill or sand road where power and every ounce of it is needed. Notice how steadily and powerfully it pulls when running slowly under load. The capacity of the Rambler engine for doing this extra work is most noticeable at low engine speeds. This is because of the offset crank shaft.

Rambler

The Car with the Offset Crank Shaft

All that power which in other engines is lost through friction on the bearings and cylinder walls, is added to the driving force by the Rambler offset crank shaft. It reduces friction, eliminates hammer on bearings, gives more power. The straight-line-drive delivers the power direct and with least frictional loss to the rear axle. Let us demonstrate these features and the silence and comfort of this car. Let us call at your home, and take you to your place of business some morning in a Rambler.

THE TEAM

La Crosse has the best baseball
team it has ever had, and it is playing the poorest ball of any team it has ever had.

There's a reason. Probably there are reasons. But THE reason is that they don't care whether they play
or not.

This was apparent in every move
of the men yesterday. There was no
coaching, no barking from the side
lines, no animation or "ginger" of any sort. Neither was there any team
work, school boy, infield collisions,
apathetic movements toward ground
balls made hits by players lassitude
and general "Wot t' ell!" conduct prevailing.

Manager Safford did splendid work
in the selection of this team. He is a good fellow, and a player himself
from top to bottom. Sober and in-earnest, he cannot conceal his disgust when the men take too much Old Crow and do the social "lally-
gag" coming onto the diamond
cross-eyed and nerveless as a consequence. Individual players might be mentioned in this connection, but
for a starter, it may be better to omit names. The fact of interest to the fans is this: That Manager Saf-
ford has got to peel his coat and "go to" some of these boys. They played their heads off when they were trying to make the team, but now they think the job is cinched. THEY MUST BE SHOWN THAT THIS IS

The Freak Better
He's abroad in the land,
Doing stunts;
For more foolish than his kind,
There's no hunts,

He has racked
Planning bets that can't be Near side tracked.
He draws crowds in the street
To look on,
While he does foolish things
Ne'er would dawn
On his mind to perform
Other times,
But with queer custom now
Fully chimes.

The mob that looks on
Thinks it fun,
Yet no folly is there new
Neath the sun,
If there were, above all
Would he set,
The fool man now who makes
The fool bet.

Cornered
Pa—Edith, how often do you practice on the piano when I'm away?
Edith—Every day, pa.
Pa—How long did you practice
yesterday?
Edith—Four hours.
Pa—And today?
Edith—About the same.
Pa—Well, I'm glad to hear you're
so regular. The next time you practice, however, be sure to unlock the piano. I locked it last week, and I've been carrying the key in my pocket
ever since. Here it is!—Judge.

Economical
"The servant that works for me
must be very economical," said the
boarding house mistress to the applicant for work.
"O'm such a one, mum," promptly returned the applicant. "Indeed,
me last mistress discharged me for
bein' that way!"
"For being economical?"
"Yis, wid me clothes. Oi used to wear hers."—The Bohemian.

Post Mortem Inquiry
A student at a medical college was under examination. The instructor
asked him: "Of what cause, specifically, did the people die who lost their lives at the destruction of Her-
culeanum and Pompeii?"
"I think they died of an eruption,
sir," answered the student.—Argonaut.

The Power of the Pocket Book
Hub—I really think, wife, you should have that ball dress made a little higher in the neck, to say nothing of the back.
Wife—I'll have it changed if you wish, but the material costs $10 a yard.
Hub—Um—well—never mind.—
Boston Transcript.

No Value to Him
"What convinces you that criticisms
are of no value?"
"Because," answered the theatrical manager, "my show doesn't get
any of the kind I can quote in my advertising."

How to Mischandle Horses
Drivers who fail to make their horses vicious and fractious, although
they do their best, may be interested in the following directions, compiled
after observation of some of the more
successfully brutal drivers:
First—Never feed your horses
properly. This will prove expensive
through impairing the general health
and ability of the animals.
Second—Never mind whether the horses are thirsty or not, so long as
your own gizzard is moist.
Third—Always overload your waggon.
Fourth—Never show any consideration for your team on account of the weather.
Fifth—When your horses get frightened, never show them any kindness. Yell.

A Constipation Remedy Free

There is no action of your daily
life of greater importance than to see that your bowels move. They should move at least once a day naturally,
and by that is meant without any help.
If they do not move at least once a
day you can consider yourself constipated and it is time you did something about it.
You will be glad to know there is a way out of the difficulty. Lemuel Landerdale, an old soldier at Quincy, Ill., Elmer McMillan, of Speed, Mo., Mrs.
Monahan, of Stoneville, Miss., and many others were as you are now. But one day they awoke to the fact that Dr.
Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin was curing their friends, so they bought it too and it cured them. Today they are loud in praise of it.
What Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin did
for them it should do for you. Surely your constipation is no worse than theirs, one of whom had it since '61. It only remains for you to realize that salts are of but temporary good, and what you want is a
permanent cure, that purgative tablets,
cathartic pills and such violent things
make a great show of doing something,
but do nothing that is lasting. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a scientific preparation, a laxative- tonic, a mild syrupy
liquid that contains ingredients that not only cure the constipation, but tone the intestinal muscles so that they learn again to work without help. A bottle can be bought of any druggist for the small
price of 50 cents, and there is a dollar
size for families who have already found
out its wonderful value in stomach, liver
and bowel troubles, in old or young.
Send your name and address to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent you
so that you can test it before buying.
If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want
any medical advice, write
to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service.
The address is Dr. W. B.
Caldwell, 324 Caldwell bldg.,
Monticello, Ill.

PURE MUSIC AND DRAMA

(By Isidor Tippmann.)
A mighty monarch on the dramatic throne and charming prince
from the empire of music were the entertainers at the theater last evening. The Ben Greet players presented Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" with Mendel-sohn's music. Thus there was a combination of pure drama and pure
music and the result was a most delightful entertainment. The players were without exception most successful in their respective parts, producing a faultless ensemble. The Russian Symphony orchestra also did
full justice to Mendelssohn's interesting and delightful music. There were forty musicians in the orchestra
and their playing revealed technical proficiency combined with the ability to adopt the musical numbers to
the dramatic situations on the stage.
The overture, Intermezzo Nocturno
and the Wedding March were particularly enjoyed by the audience. The latter was extraordinary in point of quantity and quality. The following data may interest the readers:
The distinguished company of actors and musicians left New York
city on the first of March, and has now covered a territory of twenty-
nine states, playing in eighty-four cities. Week stands were made in Denver, San Francisco, Los Angeles
and Seattle. Besides "A Midsummer Night's Dream," Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet" was presented with music by Glazounow, Tschakowsky
and Guonod. Mr. Modest Altschuler
is the able conductor of the Russian Symphony orchestra of New York,
which numbers one hundred and five musicians. This orchestra makes a specialty of the introduction of this country of the creations of contemporary Russian composers and these concerts constitute one of the most interesting features of New York's musical seasons, for the Russian
school of composers has in recent years brought forth a large number
of wonderfully fascinating works,
greatly enriching the domain of absolute music. This is Mr. Altschuler's seventh season as conductor of the orchestra.

IN THE NATION'S CAPITOL

(By John J. Hannan.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15.— Senator Aldrich wishes that he had presented his argument upon the La Follette amendments before the vote
was taken upon those amendments
rather than afterwards. This was the comment privately of a republican
senator upon the effect of the seath-
ing denunciation of the Aldrich leadership which was made by La Follette in one of the most dramatic instances that has ever occurred up-
on the floor of a legislative body.
Mr. Aldrich, after he had announced
early in the day that he would debate the La Follette amendment, did not do so but sat quietly in his seat
until after the vote had been taken and announced. Then he arose with a cablegram in his hand giving the price of one certain batch of wool in London and with an argument based on that one batch of wool, he made a claim that the effect of the La Fol-
lette amendment to the wool schedule would be to reduce the tariff on
first class wool about one-half, and
to increase the duties on first class
wool about two cents a pound.

It was a most audacious position
for a man in charge of a piece of legislation to take. The whip of the finance committee had cracked over
the heads of the senators and under Aldrich's leadership they had been driven to vote against those amendments without information and without any explanation on the part of the chairman of the finance committee or any member of that committee who voted them down blind-
ly. Then the pettishness of Aldrich was revealed. He was not in the position of a leader seeking to honestly
secure support for the measure he
was advocating, but he was shown
to be holding back information with
the purpose of making a pitfall for members of the same political party
to which he belongs. It matters not that the information he placed before the senate was false, misleading and only stated a partial truth,
his purposes were revealed and his measure taken. Congressional history does not furnish a parallel to
his performance.

In the course of his speech, Mr.
Aldrich said:
"I should like to know what my friend from Iowa (Mr. Cummins)
and my friend from Indiana (Mr.
Beveridge) are going to say in their
protective speeches in this country.
How are they going to explain their
votes in reducing the wool protection
which is afforded the wool growers of the United States from 40 to 50 per cent by their action in this matter?"
Mr. Clapp: I merely want to say
it will keep us much busier explaining somebody else's votes. (Applause
in the galleries.)

Mr. La Follette: Mr. President,
I hope the senator from Rhode Island will be able to take great satisfaction out of the course which he has pursued here this afternoon. Assuming that he is right in the position which he has taken, that his declarations are unassailable, it is an
impeachment of his leadership here.
The want of confidence in that leadership which has come to some republican members at this body finds justification in his course here today if ever before. He knows well,
sir, the position in which republican
senators have been placed in attempting to reluctantly find their

Unconsciously he had used the words of a diplomat. Nothing touches the pride of a sailor so quickly as
any suggestion that his boat is unfit
to go through hard weather, and many lives have been lost through this reckless vanity. Bill Yardley
was proud of his boat, and he fired
up at the imputation. He would far rather have been accused of cowardice.

"Stand it," he shouted angrily.
"Lor' bless you, there ain't wind
'nuff in the sky, nor water 'nuff in
the sea, to best the Hope and Glory. She'll stand it, and I and my mate'll stand it. I was thinkin' of you, sir."

"Keep at it," cried Tankerlane.
"I'll go below."

"Please tell young Playle to come
on deck, sir. I can't have him skul-lin' down below there."

Tankerlane crawled down the
hatchway into the warm and cosy
cabin. A coke fire glowed in the stove, an dthe general appearance
of warmth and dryness formed a
pleasing contrast to the wet and
wind-swept deck outside.

As he reached the foot of the ladder, young Joe Playle came hurriedly from the other end of the cabin.
The whole place smelt strongly of alcohol, but Tankerlane was far too
ill to notice details of this sort.

"You're wanted on deck," he muttered, and then collapsed on the floor, as a sudden gust of wind sent
the lee rail of the smack under water.

The young gant picked him up and
laid him on one of the bunks.
"A drop of sperrits'd do you
good, sir," he said thickly.
"Give it me," groaned Tanker-

Can You Tell the Cause of Your Trouble?

Are you sometimes discouraged,
and think you'll never be any better?
Can you tell the cause of your
trouble, or what makes you sick?
Do you know that about nine-
tenths of all sickness is caused by kidney trouble?
Have you ever stopped to think
that your kidneys may be the cause
of your poor health?
Most people do not realize how
much work the kidneys are required
to do every day.
Every drop of blood in the body
must pass through and be filtered by
the kidneys thousands of times a day.
How can they do their work well
if they are sick?
If your kidneys need treatment,
Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the wonderful kidney remedy, will prove to be just the medicine you need.
If you will write to Dr. Kilmer &
Co., Binghamton, N. Y., every reader
of this paper, who has not already
tried Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy, may receive a sample bottle by mail, absolutely free. You can purchase the bottles at all drug stores.

lane, turning his face to the wall of
the cabin.
"With water, sir?"
"No, neat. Hurry up, that's a good chap."

In his misery Tankerlane had forgotten Yardley's warning and for the same reason he did not notice
that the man found the whisky without any inquiries about its hiding-
place, nor did he see that one of the bottles was already nearly half empty.

"Thanks," he said gratefully, as
he drained half a tumbler of the neat
spirit. "Have a drop yourself."

The man helped himself liberally,
drank it at one gulp, and then went
on deck with a cigarette in his mouth.
"What be doin' down there?"
asked Yardley, as he scrutinized his partner's face. "This ain't weather
for idlin'." He could see that Playle
had been drinking, but he had no
wish to provoke a quarrel by saying anything about it. The young fellow was a nasty customer to tackle
in a brawl, and his temper was none
of the sweetest when he had a drop
of liquor inside him.

"What be wantin'?" asked Playle.
"Just take in that jib," said Yardley, "and put up the smallest one
we've got. And when you've done that, brail up the mainsail. We've
a bit more canvas than we shall be able to carry down this channel."

"Tis wet for'ard," said Playle,
looking doubtfully at a wave, which
had flooded the fore part of the boat
with a foot and a half of green sea.

"Twill be wetter, if you ain't sharp."

Playle spat out a forcible oath,
and made his way to the jib halliard.
He performed his task with a dexter-
ity that was truly remarkable under the circumstances. In spite of the fact that he had swallowed nearly half a bottle of whisky, and that the boat was plunging her nose every minute into a heavy sea, he never slipped or hesitated. More than once he was up to his knees in water, and a landsman would have been swept overboard. But the young sailor seemed as steady as a rock. Yardley
watched him closely, and grunted
approval. He had sent him there to test his sobriety, and he was satisfied.

"Have a turn at the tiller," he said gruffly. "I want to get warm."
"Half a minute, mate. I be wet
right to the middle. I'll take my turn when I've had a change. You ain't bin sea bathin' like I have."

He went down into the cabin,
changed his clothes, consumed two
more stiff whiskies, and returned on deck.

Then Yardley handed him over the
tiller, and, under retence of coiling
a rope, watched him narrowly. But the young man's hand was steady
enough, and his head was apparently clear. He handled the boat like a yachtsman racing in smooth water,
and dodged the waves with the skill
of an old sailor.

"I'm goin' below," said Yardley,
"and you gimme a hal' when you're goin' to put her round. I'll look after the jib sheet for you. And you be sure to give Black Spit Island a wide berth. There ain't much water within fifty yards of her now. The channel's silted up a bit on that side since last year. I member when I was a boy, you could sail within ten feet of
her at half-ebb."

"I knows all 'bout Black Spit Island," said Playle angrily. "There
ain't anythin' you can teach me 'bout
Black Spit Island, Billy Yardley."

"Well, don't you cut it fine, that's all," replied the elder man, as he disappeared down the hatchway.

But young Playle had already resolved to cut it as fine as he dared.
He was not drunk, but he had taken
enough to make him reckless, and
the joyous spirit of fine sailing possessed him. The pleasure of a thresh to windward lies in making

as much ground as possible on each tack. Many a sober man has come to grief in the mad joy of sailing too
near shallow water, and it was hardly to be expected that a man, whose brain was fired with drink, would be over careful.

Black Spit Island was a small detached piece of land lying about five miles from the shore and on the very edge of the Black Deep Sands. But for the fact that it was surrounded by a strong stone wall faced with lines of wooden piles, it would have shared the fate of all the tract of
country which the sea had eaten
away from the mainland and buried in the sand. The highest part of the island was only ten feet above the spring tide high-water mark. It remained as a fine example of how a determined man may fight against nature.

A house once stood on the island,
and nearly a hundred years ago
when the sea had almost completed
its work of destruction, the owner,
cut off on all sides by the sea, had
sworn to keep his home from the grasp of the encroaching tides. He had done so successfully. And long after he was dead and his house had been pulled down to strengthen part
of the sea wall, this little patch of land remained to bear his name. He had been one of the Black Hall folk,
and for many years the place had been known as Black House. But when the Trinity on the end of the sand, some miles distant, and had named it the Black Spit Buoy, the sailors had altered the name of the island.

He must be shortsighted who
thinks he is lifting himself by turning up his nose at others.

Occasionally you will find a man
who is so lazy that he would rather
pay rent than move.

We have noticed that statements
to the effect that work is better than
idleness always refer to men only.

A man could hardly ever be crazy
to go to church unless his wife didn't want him to.

TRACK WORK WILL BE DONE IN TIME

Section Men Rushing Work Delayed by Trouble With Italian Workmen

The long delayed track work in the yards of the Milwaukee is now being pushed with rapidity. The men who were new to the work about a month ago are now capable of handling the jobs which are assigned to them and it is thought that the work which at one time was about two months behind will be completed before the cold weather sets in in the fall. The Italian laborers who in the beginning of the year caused so much trouble and were responsible for the delay of the work, have been peaceable since the more troublesome of their countrymen left La Crosse. They speak little English and when they arrived here several months ago were unacquainted with the vernacular of the railroad men and green to the work, but under the supervision of capable section foremen the laborers have been developed, step by step, into capable workmen.

At the present time the men are engaged in the laying of new steel rails in the yards. The raising of the tracks is still in progress but this will soon be finished. Several cars of granite screenings are being distributed along the tracks in the yards to be used in the improvement of the road beds. A new income track is in process of construction. This extends from the bridge into the east yards and when completed will fill a long felt want among the trainmen of the Milwaukee.

CAR CLERK HAS NARROW ESCAPE

William Hanson, a car clerk at the Burlington offices at Grand Crossing, experienced a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday. He was making his daily trip among the box and freight cars, and as he was looking into one of the cars, which had a door open, the switch engine kicked the car, slamming the door shut, but fortunately for the young man only his hat was caught between the door and the car. Had the door hit his head it would undoubtedly have resulted in a fracture of the skull or perhaps serious injury.

It is easy to mistake self-approbation for deformation.

START DREDGING RIVER TOMORROW

Work on Black River in Front of New Park Is to Be Rushed to Finish

The work of dredging out the Black river in front of the new north side park will be started tomorrow. The dredging outfit has been in position for the past few days and the men have been making the final steps necessary to accompany active work on the bed of the river. It is proposed to make the river bed navigable for large boats and an ideal place for boating of all sorts. It would be an excellent place for a bathing beach, but as yet the plans of the park do not call for anything in the bathing line.

The work on the park ground is still in the preliminary stages. The objectionable trees are all removed and the sheds and old buildings are now being razed. The park when finished will slope gently toward the river front with the exception of the play grounds in the center, which will have to be level. The entire park will be two feet above the high water mark.

The north side people are anxiously awaiting the completion of the work, in order to get an idea of the appearance of the new park.

BEAR IN NORTH WISCONSIN

Roosevelt need not have gone to Africa if he had been satisfied to shoot bear. He could have stayed as close to home as the Northern part of Wisconsin, and found all the bear he wanted.

Henry Brady and Jake Carew are probably the two best-known hunters and trappers in the State of Wisconsin. They roam through all the Northern countries and make a big income from their furs and skins. Brady says he has killed at least a hundred bears since he has been in Wisconsin—and coon, fox, mink, beaver and other smaller game without number. Carew is known as the "Silver Fox" man, because he claims to have captured the last Silver Fox ever taken in the State. Of course, it was a good many years ago. He sold the pelt to Funston Bros., in St. Louis, and got $500.00 for it—it was graded as a No. 1.

"Some day," says Carew, "we'll be talking just the same way about who killed the last bear—but not for a long time yet," he added. "There'll be bear here as long as you and I are alive."

Hundreds of hunters from the large cities spend their summer vacations in Northern Wisconsin and the Round Lake country after the bear and deer.

The American Immigration Company owns over a million acres of good hunting and fishing lands, and have sold a large number of big sections for hunting preserves. FRANK G. ROYH has just been appointed the agent for these lands in this city, and have a special proposition of interest to all men who would like to own a fine game preserve at a very low expense.

Photograph of Henry Brady and Jake Carew with the bear they have just killed. Other photographs and a booklet describing this great hunting and fishing country can be obtained free of charge by addressing THE AMERICAN IMMIGRATION CO., Chippewa Falls, Wis.

CHAUTAUQUA DATE IS NEAR AT HAND

Big Entertainment Opens in La Crosse in Less than Two Weeks From Today

The final plans for the coming of the La Crosse chautauqua are now being made. The personal representative of the Redpath-Vawter Chautauqua System has been here for the past two weeks, telling the people of the big event and endeavoring to interest as many individuals as possible in the week's entertainment. The Fair Grounds have again been secured as the site for the big audience tent and are long a force of men will be spreading the canvass.

Unusual interest has been manifested in the event on the part of the business men of La Crosse. This part bespeaks the character of the program that Mr. Vawter has scheduled for the local city and is a substantial compliment to the initial appearance of the Redpath-Vawter Chautauqua System in this city last year. The advance sale of season tickets is much larger than last year and the management is preparing to care for at least a thousand more patrons than were present a year ago.

Just two weeks from yesterday is the opening day. People should take notice of this announcement and shape their work and engagements so as to be free during the entire week, commencing June 28. There is something good every day. Holders of season tickets should bear in mind the morning lectures by Professor Laird. The season tickets admit to these lectures. Prof. Laird is one of the foremost lecturers of the country. He was sometime Professor of English in the Wisconsin State university though by birth he belongs to New England. His lectures—six in number—will deal critically, though popularly, with the great poets and their writings. Whittier, Lowell, Burns, Wordsworth and Shakespeare will each furnish the basis of an entire lecture. In these discourses both the literary student and the cursory reader of poetry will find intense interest. Mr. Laird never fails to handle his subject in a masterly fashion. He is scholarly in the treatment of his material yet his long experience in chautauqua work has made him capable of entertaining and educating the more learned and least widely read at the same time. The morning lectures by Professor Laird are sure to be one of the treats of the season.

Another feature of this year's chautauqua will be the Redpath Seton Indians. Any boy or girl between the ages of 6 and 14 can play Indian at the chautauqua tepees. Each boy or girl must have a suit which can be procured from the Continental Clothing company and a child's season chautauqua ticket. These cost $1.00 and can be had from Rev. Panzla, 709 Perry street. This is absolutely all the expense attached to playing Indian at the chautauqua.

The instruction, tepees, wigwams, blankets, and various Indian paraphernalia for mock hunts, sham battles, etc., is supplied by the chautauqua management.

The value of this feature as combining instruction, study, and good, clean, wholesome fun and out door play during the vacation period will be readily appreciated by parents and teachers. Two tribes of Indians modeled upon the Seton plan will be organized thoroughly trained and competent young women teachers and directors. Indian names and dress will be adopted and the Indian of Longfellow and Cooper be taken as the type. Honor, fairness, courage, clean living will be inculcated, legends of the Hiawatha character told by the story tellers and natural history, observation and appreciation of out of doors thought. Games of Indian origin, practice with bows and arrows and other amusements more particularly belonging to whites will be indulged in as directed by those in charge.

LANSGING WINS FROM NOXALLS

In a fast and interesting game the Noxalls were defeated by Lansing at Lansing by a score of 8 to 6.

Tully occupied the box for Lansing and Swaty for the Noxalls, Lansing scored one run in the first inning by three hits, but did not score again until the fifth, when they annexed another run.

The Noxalls did not secure as much as a scratch hit up to the fifth inning, when Swaty lined one out for three bags. Nesham flid, but Kolb singled over second, scoring Swaty.

Nofhy, Lansing and Betten singled in succession scored two more runs and that was all the Noxalls secured in that inning. The next inning, Voss got one of Tully's high ones in the shoulder, and then Tully lost the plate, passing Swaty and Nesham.

At this point Tully was yanked out and Wolf substituted, with the bases full. Kolb landed on one of Wolf's flat-toppers in deep center scoring Voss and Swaty. Nesham was put out in this play, having overstepped third base. Nofhy got a walk but here is where the umpire, Mr. Severson, called Kolb out at second, after he had started for second on the pass given Nofhy.

Lassig and Betten again singled, scoring Nofhy. The next was an easy out. The score now was 6 to 2 in favor of the Noxalls. Lansing scored two runs in the sixth for three hits and two runs and one more run in the seventh. At the opening of the eighth the first two men singled and here is where, say the La Crosse boys, the umpire handed the La Crosse aggregation a lemon. Bond, the man at bat, knocked a ball to the right field foul line, which hit about 10 feet foul. The umpire walked to the line, waited a minute and called the ball a fair hit. By his decision Lansing scored two runs. They annexed one more score, making the final count 8 to 6.

One hardly knows whether to congratulate science upon the recent invention of noiseless firearms or condole with the human family over the many dangers arising from its use. Capt. A. F. Laudensack, who lives in New Haven, Conn., was for a long period a member of the Connecticut National Guard and for ten successive years held second high average for his regimental rifle team. His first appearance at a tournament of note was at Sea Girt in 1905, in attendance on the national matches and matches of the New Jersey State Rifle association, where in winning the Kuser rapid fire match with a score of 117 he distinguished himself and made a new world's record. In doing this he used a Winchester model 1895 rifle, which is the same kind of rifle that ex-President Roosevelt has taken to Africa to shoot big game with. As this is the most powerful repeating rifle made and has great rapidity of fire, as is shown by the world's record made with it as above, it will readily be recognized how deadly a weapon Mr. Roosevelt has. At the national matches at Sea Girt in 1906, Capt. Laudensack made another new world's rapid fire record, scoring 51 shots in one minute at 300 yards with a Winchester model 1905 .32 caliber self-loading rifle. Again in 1908 at Camp Perry, he put up still another world's rapid fire record, targeting 91 shots in one minute at 200 yards with a Winchester .22 Automatic rifle and Winchester cartridges.

Capt. Laudensack seems to excel particularly at rapid-fire shooting, but is also able to do notable work at other forms of shooting, as his performance at the tournaments of the Zettler Rifle club in New York city shows. On the difficult bulls-eye target he was second last year, making a target of one degree; and on the ring target he tied for first place with the "possibles" of 75. This year he also made "possibles."

On account of Capt. Laudensack's expert knowledge of firearms, he was selected to inspect and sight all the arms carried by ex-President Roosevelt to Africa.

Capt. Laudensack will be in La Crosse Thursday and Friday at the Stoddard, where he will exhibit and explain the guns used by President Roosevelt.

"It cured me," or "It saved the life of my child," are the expressions you hear every day about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is true.

No other medicine in use for diarrhoea or bowel complaint has received such general approval. The secret of the success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is that it cures.

RANSACK STEAMER IN BENNETT MYSTERY

NAPLES, June 14.—United States Consul Crowninshield today cabled to New York to have the authorities thoroughly examine the steamer Berlin and all her steerage passengers when the vessel arrives in New York in the hope of finding some clue to the disappearance of Holland Bennett, the Boston man who is supposed to have disappeared from the ship somewhere between Genoa and Naples.

Crowninshield is inclined to accept the theory that young Bennett, who was on his honeymoon, committed suicide, but so stoutly did the wife and friends of the missing man resist this that he has asked that the ship be overhauled on arriving in New York.

The Berlin sailed Saturday and after she left it was rumored that possibly Bennett had been killed aboard the ship and his body hidden somewhere on the vessel. A wireless message was sent to the captain and he reported that the ship had been searched from stem to stern without result.

If Bennett was the victim of any person or persons aboard the Berlin, Crowninshield is confident that a search of such persons will reveal their connection with the case.

BRAIN BUILDING

How to Feed Nervous Cases.

Hysteria sometimes leads to insanity and should be treated through feeding the brain and nerves upon scientifically selected food that restores the lost delicate gray matter. Proof of the power of the brain food, Grape-Nuts, is remarkably strong.

"About eight years ago when working very hard as a court stenographer I collapsed physically, then nervously, and was taken to the State Hospital for the Insane at Lincoln, Neb., a raving maniac.

"They had to keep me in a straight-jacket and I was kept in the worst ward for three months. I was finally dismissed in the following May but did no brain work for years, until last fall when I was persuaded to take the testimony in two cases.

"One of these was a murder case and the strain upon my nervous system was so great that I would have broken down again except for the strength I had built up by the use of Grape-Nuts. When I began to feel the pressure of the work on my brain and nerves I simply increased the amount of Grape-Nuts and used the food more regularly.

"I now feel like a new self again and am healthy and happy. I am sure that if I had known of Grape-Nuts when I had my trouble 8 years ago I would never have collapsed, and this dark experience in my life would never have happened.

The power of Grape-Nuts as a brain food is simply wonderful and I do not believe any stomach is so weak that it cannot digest this wonderful food."

"There's a Reason." Look for the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

TRY TO MURDER A DRY TOWN MAYOR

Bomb Hurling into Residence of Bellefontaine Executive and Family Barely Escapes

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio, June 15.—An attempt to destroy the life and property of Mayor Wm. N. Nizen was made early today by an assassin and incendiary who hurled a blazing bottle through a large plate glass window in the parlor of his home. Mayor Nizen was absent from the city but the assassin could not have known this. His two sisters and a niece were in the house at the time, but were rescued by firemen and policemen.

Mayor Nizen was elected on an anti-saloon platform and has been unusually diligent in prosecuting violations of the liquor laws. Recently he attempted to force fruit merchants from selling their wares on Sunday.

The fire damage is estimated at $1,000. The crash of the bomb through the plate glass window was followed by an explosion which shook many buildings in the neighborhood. Two policemen attracted by the report and flames, made no attempt to arrest a man they saw running from the yard, thinking he was about to turn in an alarm. When they arrived at the house, Mrs. Fitchhorn, Miss Edith Nizen and Miss Maude Fitchhorn were hemmed in by the flames. They were carried to safety by the officers and the firemen.

HINT FOR DYSPEPTICS

Proper Diet, Plenty of Time for Eating and Rest Will Cure Most Cases Unless the Blood-Supply is Deficient.

Drugs play very little part in the modern treatment of dyspepsia. From a list of articles easily digested the patient selects those that most appeal to the appetite, avoids hasty eating and rests after each meal by lying down for a time if circumstances permit. Then, unless the supply of blood to the stomach is deficient, nature works the cure.

The cure of Mrs. Jennie Temple, of No. 106 North Main street, Fond du Lac, Wis., of stomach trouble by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills was due to their power to build up and purify the blood. She says:

"I take great pleasure in letting others know of the great benefit I have received from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was a sufferer of stomach trouble, caused by overwork, for about two years. My appetite was very poor and I could not eat much of anything. No matter what I ate, my stomach became sour and gas would form on it, causing shortness of breath and affecting my heart. I had to diet and eat only the lightest food. For months I did not know what a good night's rest meant. I had frequent dizzy spells and would faint at the least excitement. My head ached almost continually and my heart action was slow and irregular. I was weak and thin and in every way was extremely wretched. At one time I was confined to bed for three weeks.

"I had begun to despair of getting well as I had been treated by many doctors and spent a great deal of money in medicines and had received little or no help. Finally my sister became alarmed at my failure to get well and begged me to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. Just to humor her I bought four boxes of the pills. Before I had taken the pills a month I felt much better, both mentally and physically. My nerves became stronger, my heart action was more steady and the distressing symptoms were lessened. My appetite increased and I soon became well and strong. Since using the pills I have regained my weight. I still take a few doses of the pills occasionally to tone me up. I can truthfully say that I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the very best medicine any person, suffering as I did, can take."

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Contractor Wooley of La Crosse, is in Milwaukee this week and the foreman could not say whether a raise would be possible or not. BANGOR WELCOMES THE COUNTY BOARD

BANGOR, Wis., June 15.—(Special.)—Met at the depot by a delegation of citizens from Bangor and the surrounding towns, the La Crosse County Board of Supervisors were cordially welcomed when they arrived here this morning for the purpose of going over the proposed new Bostwick Valley road.

Citizens here are very anxious to impress upon them the importance of this highway, so the delegation of citizens which accompanied the expedition over the land through which the board will be laid was larger than the board itself.

The entire distance of five miles was covered on foot after which the party was met by carriages which took them back to this village where dinner had been prepared for the occasion, and some fifty or sixty interested persons awaited the supervisors to lay their individual opinions before them.

This afternoon the board was called to order by Chairman Davis. At the time of this dispatch the petition is being read by County Clerk Charles H. Rawlinson.

When the road matter is disposed of, other business will be discussed between the board members, but no regular action can be taken on any other matter except the road, as the meeting was called especially to consider the road matter only.

BARTENDERS' BUNCH WALLOPS BARBERS

The Bartenders' baseball bunch under the leadership of Manager Harry Olson took the North Side Barbers' baseball team out in the empty lot at the end of Caledonia street and walloped them plenty, according to the accounts of the game brought back by the julep mixers last night.

Fast and furious was the game, and although the North side made a strong start, beginning with two runs in the first inning, their endurance was not quite up to the standard required by the bartenders. In the eighth inning the score was tied with four runs to the credit of each team, and this is the way it remained until the bartenders put things to the bar for the North side aggregation by slipping in a score in the last half of the eleventh inning.

According to the barbers' account of the contest, they let the booze clerks have the game on purpose, because they "didn't want to lose their stand-in with the bartenders," but President of the League Chas. Niebuhr says that this is a flimsy excuse, just calculated to get the sympathy of a few of the North side fans.

The score:
Barbers . . . . . 20000011000—4
Bartenders . . . . . 00030001001—5

OWEN ARRAIGNS THE ALDRICH PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15.—An exhaustive review of the pending tariff bill and a vigorous protest against the practice of veterans in hazing new members, were the chief points in a speech delivered by Senator Owen (D., Okla.) in the senate today.

"This bill," Owen said, "will continue to maintain monopoly and will be followed by high prices, low wages, increased crime and extravagant and corrupt standards."

"He charged that the senate was controlled by Senators Hale and Frye, of Maine; Lodge, of Massachusetts; Aldrich, of Rhode Island; and Gallinger, of New Hampshire, who represent less than 7 per cent of the American people, and that the republican senators of Iowa, of Nebraska, of Minnesota, of Wisconsin, of Indiana, and other states, plead in vain for the rights of the western people. He declared committee appointments should be made upon a geographical basis.

"I cannot but feel that the masters of monopoly in this country are in control, that this bill is written to serve their purpose to make the rich richer and the poor poorer; to benefit few at the expense of many."

Gotch merely toyed with Jenkins, taking the first fall in 14:28 and the second in 7:52. The only feature marking Jenkins' work was his ability to elude the Iowan's toe holds.

RIISING SUN, Wis., June 15.—Sunday, Rev. Father O'Reilly, pastor of the Catholic church here, bade farewell to his congregation before leaving for his old home in Ireland to take a well earned rest.

During his five years' pastorate he built and furnished a beautiful new residence, made extensive repairs upon the church and many outside improvements amounting in all to about $15,000.

On account of Sunday being wet only a few were present at services but a few showed their appreciation these few demonstrated in a substantial manner the high esteem in which they hold Father O'Reilly by making up a purse of $131 for him.

While his people regret to lose him their best wishes accompany him to his new home.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., June 15.—John Kuepfer, for twenty years a resident of this city, committed suicide by shooting himself with a shotgun at his home on Walter street.

Late in the evening Kuepfer got out a shotgun and locked himself in his room. His action frightened his wife and she hurriedly called in the neighbors. Just as one of the men succeeded in getting the door open far enough to thrust his head into the room, Kuepfer pulled the trigger of the gun and tore away his left side. He died instantly.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." AT THE BIJOU

Bert Renshaw, the man who plays the many instruments, opened the performance at the Bijou last evening and before he retired he had established himself favorably in the good graces of the audience. His costume is very unique and the line of jokes which he sends over the footlights' glare, grew brighter as the act progressed. His trombone solo was excellent.

Owen and Hoffman present a laughable skit, entitled "The Green Eyed Monster." Mr. Fuzzy is very nervous and takes powder. He happens to learn, by impersonating Mrs. Fuzzy, over the telephone, that she has ordered some poison, to put the "old brute" out of the way. He at once becomes suspicious and refuses to drink any milk with powder in it. The situation hinges on the mistake of Mr. Fuzzy, thinking that the "old brute" is himself when in reality it is the dog Carlo, which Mrs. Fuzzy intends to put out of his misery. As he listens to his wife talking over the telephone he is assured that she and "Drug Store Charlie" intend to murder him for the insurance. The act keeps the audience in a continual laugh from start to finish. Mr. Owen, taking the part of Mr. Fuzzy, is excellent.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

When the blood becomes infected with the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, the symptoms are soon manifested. The mouth and throat become copper-colored spots appear, a red rash breaks out, the hair begins to come out, and usually sores and ulcers show themselves on different parts of the body. At the first sign of the disease S.S.S. should be taken, for the trouble is too powerful and dangerous to trifle with. If allowed to run on the tendency is to work down and attack the bones and nerves, and sometimes it makes a complete physical wreck of the sufferer. The disease can make no such headway if S.S.S. is commenced and used according to directions; its progress can be stopped, the poison removed, and health preserved. S.S.S. goes into the blood and removes the infectious virus, cleanses the circulation and makes a complete and permanent cure by driving out the cause. S.S.S. quickly takes effect on the blood, and gradually the symptoms disappear, the health is improved, the skin cleared of all spots, sores and blemishes, and when S.S.S. has thoroughly purified the circulation no trace of the disease is left. S.S.S., a purely vegetable remedy, cures Contagious Blood Poison because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, tested and proven for more than forty years. When you get glasses of me you pay no more than they are worth and know that they fit your eyes. The eyes are too precious to be tampered with by incompetent who handle glasses as merchandise and offer them at variable prices. Glasses that fit your eyes have a specific value (my kind) others are dear at any price for they might ruin your eyes.

the many voices, gives imitations of every kind, from Bridget, the cook, to a little girl of seven singing her first song in public. She retired a high favorite.

The five Shannons present a very good singing and dancing act. The youngest member of the troupe took the house by storm and exclamations of "Oh, isn't he cute," etc., were audible over the entire house. The little fellow is a mere child and evidently a very precocious youngster.

Meyer Levi still continues to please with his excellent voice. Last evening he sang "Is There Any Room in Heaven for a Little Girl Like Me," in a very pleasing manner.

RAILROAD IMPROVES ITS TOMAH PROPERTY

TOMAH, Wis., June 15.—(Special.)—The hole south of the St. Paul depot is being filled in and will be made a beauty spot. The three cornered piece of land there is also being improved by parking and the setting out of shrubbery. When this is all done, that part of the city will most likely be as pleasing to the eye as the railroad company has made their grounds.

A considerable stretch of cement sidewalks has lately been finished at the Indian school grounds here, by Contractor E. A. Dahert. The work extends from the superintendent's residence to the west gate, then north in front of the principal buildings, with cross-walks to the other structures. The old brick walks have been in use for a number of years now, and were getting quite badly worn and the new ones replace them. It is five feet in width and about 2,200 feet long.

The new addition to the German Lutheran church is being rushed to completion. The contractor informs us that the addition will be 32x49 feet, with basement for heating and other purposes. When finished it will be most modern and complete, and one of the largest church buildings in the city.

THE DAILY MARKETS

FOREIGN MARKETS

New York Stocks
NEW YORK, June 15.—There was a good deal of trading in the Wash issues at the opening of the market. Common was reported from 23 1-2 to 24 1-4 and the preferred from 61 12 to 61- 3-4. Price movements in other issues were confused. Steel common receded one half a point. Reading made a slight fractional gain. The majority of changes were in the shape of fractional declines.

11 a. m.—After the first fifteen minutes a vigorous selling movement developed causing extensive declines with Sugar under the greatest pressure. That stock broke over five points. Other stocks were offered down sharply and for a time the market appeared extremely weak. In the later forenoon a general strong tone developed. Great Northern advanced over two points and sold at a new high record for the year.

Government bonds unchanged; others strong.

Noon.—After sugar declined over six points the market receded steady but there was still a feverish tone and gains made on rallies were only feebly maintained. There was plenty of evidence of organized activity by some large speculative interests, persistently committed to the bear side and brokers acting for this bear combination made a play at frequent intervals to reach stop orders and so forced liquidation of weakened long accounts.

Philo Hay & Co., Newark, N. J.

D. O. Mills, the Count and Countess of Granard, formerly Miss Beatrice Ogden Mills, and the Hon. John Ward and Mrs. Ward, the latter the ambassador's daughter.

Alfred Vanderbilt tooled his coach down with a large crowd on top of it, and his prize winning horses divided honors with the society beauties on the vehicle.

The entry list for the entire meeting is one of the best. Harry Payne Whitney had been persuaded to drop pole for the week and see his string run. Jack Joyner has the Whitney stable in fine shape and he declared today that he expected to unsaddle a "couple of winners" before the meet closed. The Keene, Carroll, Belmont, Winans, Croker and Vanderbilt horses are also at the course ready to run if occasion warrants. The card features for today were the gold vase, valued at $3,000; the Ascot stakes, of $10,000, and the Coventry stakes for two year olds, with $5,000 added. Tomorrow will be the big day, however, as the Royal Hunt Club, worth $2,500 and with $7,500 in cash added is carded, and among the list of eligibles are nine Americans, including Sir Martin, who came to grief in the Derby. The handicapper has placed 119 pounds on the son of Ogden, ten pounds more than has ever been allotted a three year old in this event. But then Sir Martin is American bred, and the British handicapper is not

will that any American shall have a chance for a British turf classic if weight will keep him out.

Thursday the Ascot Gold Cup with a cash prize in addition of $17,500 will be run off. It is expected to draw the biggest field of the meeting as the race sharps declare this year's event will be one of the most open ever run off. Two years ago, in White Knight's year, some light-fingered gentleman got away with the cup from the grandstand where it was on exhibition and it has never been located. Ballot, Colin, the latter doubtful, Fair Play, Norman III, and Bay Tree and Esperanto are the Americans eligible for this race.

Ascot week will be concluded on Saturday by the King's garden party which for the first time in the history of the racing at the course will be purely a private entertainment and not a state function.

Day Grows Warm
As the day advanced the sun came out strong with the result that the scene was the most brilliant in the history of the old course.

In the trial stakes James R. Keene's Ballot went to the post for the first time in England. He had to weight, 140 pounds. The race was won by J. Daly's St. Michan, who was at 4 to 1 in the betting.

J. B. Joel's Dean Swift, last year's winner, was second at 13 to 8 and Sir R. W. Griffith's Edna M 20 to 1 was third.

Although the stable did not expect to win with Ballot, the general public who had been impressed by the reports of his work, backed him heavily, he going to favorite, at odds of 6 to 4.

In the race for the gold vase, Lord Falmouth's Anadis, 5 to 2, Earl won; R. Mills, Jackson, 2 to 1, Wooten, second; J. A. Rothschild's Bomba, 100 to 7, Fox third. No American owners were represented.

American Horses Lose
Both the Whitney and the Belmont colors finished in the rack in the race for the Coventry stakes, when Artless and Merry Task finished with the also rans. The race was won by Major Toder's Admirable colt, 20 to 1, R. Dillon; P. N. Elke's Yellow Slave, even money; Saxby, second; Lord Rosebery's Neil Gow, 4 to 1, Wooten third.

The Ascot stakes handicap at 2 miles brought out a field of fifteen starters. Lionel Robinson's Ruschetter, 4 to 1, Wooten won; James Rothschild's Laughing Mirror, 2 to 1, Fox second; J. Musker's Wedding Ring, 100 to 8, Thompson third.

In the Nation's Capital.

way in the consideration of this great measure. What aid, what assistance has he given them, withholding, as he has, information upon amendments paragraph by paragraph?

Does he expect, sir, to instill confidence in the republican membership of this body and before the country by proceeding in that manner, by assuming that in our effort to discharge our obligations here we have blundered, while he, the republican leader, has aided in placing us in a position of embarrassment before our constituents?

I say this, let me state, not because the senator from Rhode Island, with all his craftiness, has succeeded in placing anything before the senate that will embarrass a republican who supported these amendments, because he has not. He has stated half truths here. He has pursued the same policy today that has discredited his leadership in this body and before the country.

He brings in a great bill here for the revision of the tariff, keeps everybody in the dark with respect to all the important facts upon which that revision should be made, and is silent when he should speak. But now because there are men here representing their constituents, according to principle, this senator, because they would not vote blindly, because they will not permit Rhode Island arbitrarily to dictate to them, throws about the fet of men who are here pressing forward in the line of what they conceive to be their duty, the network of his superior knowledge and of his fine chicanery.

Mr. President, let me say to that senator that I come from a state where by long training the people demand reasons for what their representatives do. The senator said in response to the interruption of the senator from Minnesota, that his vote should need no explanation to his constituents. That is true. The senator has built up a system in the state of Rhode Island where 11 per cent of the voting population can control the election of a United States senator. He comes from a state where it is possible for a man to maintain political supremacy and put through the legislature of that state a franchise for nine hundred and ninety-nine years for the public-service corporations of his state. He does not need to explain. He can vote as he will, without explanation.

We come from states where we have to explain, and we are doing the best we can to determine what is right. The senator from Rhode Island did not give us any information.

Mr. President, I will not detain the senate or congress upon the favor of the senator from Georgia to contrast again the proceedings of this tariff bill with proceedings on former tariff bills.

Being thrust on the floor by the chairman of the Finance committee without either oral explanation or written statement, it stands alone, I say, in the tariff history of this body and I am constrained to remind the senate and the country that there is a reason for it.

Since 1897 economic changes have occurred in this country which puts the protective system upon an entirely different basis than in the framing of any previous tariff clause. Duties which were excusable and justifiable in 1893 in 1890 and in 1897 cannot be justified today.

If duties were to be maintained at the high standard fixed in the law of 1897, if they were to be raised as in the cotton and many other schedules of this bill so that the general average would stand as nearly four per cent higher than the general average of the Dingley law with combinations preventing the people of this country from having any protection through competition, it was perhaps just as well that the senate from Rhode Island attempted to put this bill through without explanation.

Mr. President, let me say to the senator from Rhode Island that he need not feel any anxiety about the report which senators from the middle west will be able to make when they return here after having met and stated their positions upon all of these questions to their constituents. He cannot by any legislative trick in amendments that had been voted upon, plant in the mind of any senator here who has been exercising some in dependence any timidity or terror. I have no.

Mr. Gallinger, Mr. President, I arise to a question of order.

Mr. Gallinger here asked that the rule prohibiting the use of language in debate which either directly or indirectly criticize the conduct of any senator be read.

Mr. La Follette, I surrender the floor. I have finished what I had to say.

Mr. Gallinger: I desire to say that in my experience in this body I have never heard so often repeated accusations against individual senators. The senator from Wisconsin has just charged the senator from Rhode Island with practicing a legislative trick. I ask that the rule be read that the senate may know what it is.

The rule was here read.
Mr. La Follette, I should like to say in response that the rule seems to be invoked against those who stand on this side of these questions. It has never been read and the reading has never been called for by the senator from New Hampshire when someone on the other side of these issues has transgressed it.

Mr. President, I shall endeavor while I remain a member to observe this rule and I should like to have it applied to me—and it has not been applied to me as to the record with show and as I can call senators on both sides to witness—as it applies to other members of this body. My suggestion of criticism was not leveled at the chair.

PEERLESS VICTORS IN FIRST GAME

The Gund's Peerless team, composed of the office employees of the John Gund Brewing company, played their first game Sunday, June 13, at Westby, and by excellent team work won the game by a score of 4 to 2. Westby was very confident, but Gund's were still more so, even though handicapped very much on account of their catcher missing the train. The captain of Gund's team finally directed an inexperienced man to do the catching, and the manner in which the "Human Windmill" J. M. Sikorski pulled down the high ones was very pleasing to all. Moose Johnson who did the twirling for Gund's, evidently was not feeling very generous, for he only allowed the Westby aggregation one little hit. The support he received during the entire game was very good, all of the boys playing together in fine shape. The line-up of the Gund's team is as follows:

J. M. Sikorski, c; Moose Johnson, p; J. C. Dummer, 1b; Art Ulrich, 2b; O. C. Rennebohm, 3b; L. Larson, ss; H. W. Rennebohm, manager, rf; W. B. Monty, cf; J. F. Euler, lf.

Score by innings:
Gund's ..... 003000100—4
Westby ..... 000000020—2
The Peerless team made a record last year of nine victories and no defeats.

JOHNSON READY FOR JEFFRIES ANY TIME

BOSTON, June 15.—Jack Johnson was still mad clear through this morning. Any mention of Jim Jeffries started the ebony fighter on a tangent. He said:

"When I tell Jim Jeffries to cover the $5,000 that I have had posted for a fight with him since my return from Australia, everything is said. I have a lot of respect for Jeffries, but I won't stand his slurs and abuse any longer. If he means to fight, all he's got to do is simply name the time and place and he will find yours truly there with bells on. This talk of me going back since I have been doing the show houses is all bunk. I'm not out of training. I'm not overlooking bets at this stage of the game."

Jack will spar at the Armory Athletic association with Geo. Byers for six rounds tonight.

A CROWN OF GLORY.

As Well as a Mark of Beauty is Luxurious Hair

It has been truly said that the crowning glory of our race is a luxuriant head of hair. It used to be thought that this was one of the blessings which the gods bestow capriciously, and it is only recently that scientists have discovered that its beauty is dependent upon the absence of a minute germ which flourishes in the hair follicles where it destroys the life of the hair.

To restore this life and kill the germs which cause the mischief is the mission of Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide surely kills the germ, and is the best hair dressing on the market.

It contains no grease or oil, neither will it stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Hoerschler Bros., Special Agents.
